Chevaliers d'Argouges is a family company created in 1991 by the descendants of five generations of master chocolatiers. Created next to a castle defended by knights ("chevaliers") from the brotherhood "Argouges," the name of the company came as a matter of course. Located halfway between Mont St Michel and the standing beaches of Normandy, the chocolates are handcrafted, combining authentic recipes with innovation, and made with certified 100% pure cocoa butter and boast a high cocoa percentage.

Situated in the midst of the historic Bordelais vineyards, Chocolaterie de Margaux has been producing guinettes and chocolate sticks for local boulangers since 1969. In 1981, a mechanical error led to creation of sinuous sticks that resembled the local grapevines, and the sarments du Medoc were born! Today Chocolaterie de Margaux produces the twigs in wide variety of traditional flavors.

Michael Cailloux is a multidisciplinary artist who draws his inspiration from the still lifes of the 17th century or from the naturalism of the Art Nouveau style. He invents a modern baroque from a fertile and unbridled nature. The common link is an association of happy and often unexpected colors.

Comptoir & Co traces its roots to 1971, when its parent company, Société Internationale de Transaction, undertook a new activity: the importation of tropical fruits and vegetables. In the course of its many voyages, the pioneering company broadened its interest to spices, an activity which accelerated in the 2000s, when company experts scoured the five continents in search of new and exotic spices and developed strong bonds with local producers.

The bergamot, a small yellow citrus fruit, is inedible raw, but its rind yields an essential oil much used in perfumery and confectionery. In 1850, at the suggestion of a perfumer, a candy-maker in Nancy succeeded in marrying the essence of bergamot with sugar, and the bergamot of Nancy was born. The translucent amber candy was awarded an AOP (Appellation d'Origine Protégé) in recognition of its special place in French confectionery. The lid of the tin features a picture of Nancy's beautiful Place Stanislas.

MARRONS GLACÉS

This family business was founded in 1896. It specializes in the production of the most exquisite candied chestnuts, along with chestnuts in syrup, chestnut cream and candied fruit peel. Selection of ingredients is stringent: all chestnuts are of controlled origin, from Turin or Naples. Other ingredients are of the highest quality as well: sugar, MGO-free wheat glucose, and genuine Bourbon-Madagascar vanilla beans. True to the ancestral recipe, the candied and syrup chestnuts are processed in tulle muslin. In this process the raw chestnuts are wrapped in pairs in muslin. This keeps the fruit whole and prevents excessive absorption of sugar to preserve flavor.

Building on a tradition of confiserie dating back to his great grandfather, François Doucet built a company that produces sublime pâte de fruits and almond-based confections. Situated in Oraison, in the heart of Provencal orchards, the company uses ingredients from the best local producers of fruit and almonds.

Doucet's take on the Provencal tradition of 13 Christmas desserts includes chocolate-covered hazelnuts and almonds, candied almonds w/ spices, gilded milk chocolate covered almonds, crispy chocolate-covered cereal balls, a variety of pates de fruit (apricot, fig, pear, tangerine, & quince), candied orange, and raisins au marc de Champagne

Grain de Sail was born in 2010, in Morlaix, Brittany, when two enterprising brothers had the idea of transporting freight to and from the Americas with a specially designed cargo sailboat, thus keeping carbon emissions to an absolute minimum. From South America the boat brings cocoa and green coffee to Brittany, where the cocoa is transformed into a line of organic bars. The next stop is New York City, to unload a precious cargo of chocolates and wine. And then the boat heads back to South America for more cocoa and coffee, and the wonderful adventure begins again.

Situated in the midst of the historic Bordelais vineyards, Mademoiselle de Margaux has been producing guinettes and chocolate sticks for local boulangers since 1969. In 1981, a mechanical error led to creation of sinuous sticks that resembled the local grapevines, and the sarments du Medoc were born! Today Mademoiselle de Margaux produces the twigs in wide variety of traditional and innovative flavors.

Over the years, the Maison Alsacienne de Biscuiterie has become a true institution of the Alsace region. It was born in 1996 from the passion of founder Jean-Marc Muller, a man who loved his home region and its culinary heritage in equal parts. This devotion has driven the creation of exceptional biscuits, all lovingly crafted using ingredients of the highest quality and mastery of production techniques and methods.

Fifty-five years ago in Brittany, Michel Chatillon, artisan chocolatier, dedicated himself to creating a range of florentins. Cooked in a copper casserole, stirred with a wooden spoon, then topped with chocolate, his biscuits were quickly recognized for their excellence and have been awarded many prizes, including the Lauriers d'Or européens.

Maison Peltier was founded in 1946 by the Peltier family, beekeepers from father to son. It was Yves Peltier who, after receiving numerous awards for the quality of his harvests, developed the artisanal production of gingerbread from carefully selected ingredients (French flour, French butter, French eggs). The success of gingerbread, resulting from unparalleled know-how, naturally led him to the creation of a range of biscuits and honey products, without coloring or preservatives, which are presented in a range of tins.

For five generations, the Brun family has been cultivating the area around Saint Rémy de Provence. In recent years, Anne and Gilles Brun relaunched the olive activity, planting 10,000 olive trees with the five main olive varieties of the Alpilles and building an arboretum with 80 different varieties. In 2000 they installed a state-of-the-art mill. The same year, they were awarded their first gold medal in the National Agriculture Competition for their olive oil. The Moulin du Calanquet's oils are served at Le Palais de l'Elysée as well as 28 Michelin-starred restaurants.

Aglandau: This olive gets its name from the acorn it resembles (acorn = gland in French). The oil is characterized by a medium to intense pungency, with aromas of raw artichokes.

This special assemblage, or cuvée, of the Moulin du Calanquet combines the five olive local olive varieties: the grossane, verdale, aglandau, salonenque, and picholine. Its taste develops in the mouth, starting with the buttery flavor of almonds, followed by grassy aromas or raw artichoke, and finishing with a light “ardence.”

Also known as the “plant de salon” the salonenque is especially concentrated in the Bouches-du-Rhône, where it accounts for 66% of the olives grown. The oil is marked by its rich mouth feel and its scent of fresh almonds.

Muroise is a producer of artisanal jams situated at Vallet, not far from Nantes. A true savoir-faire, the true taste of "home made" are its motto. Fruits are chosen with care (quality, variety, source), then pitted peeled and zested by hand. Raw cane sugar is used, sparingly, to produce recipes that are gently cooked in a big brass cauldron before being potted by hand, which guarantees wonderful chunks or even whole pieces of fruit

For over a century, Chocolaterie Révillon has been producing the much-loved Christmas papillotes. Wrapped in shiny fringed paper, each chocolate comes bearing a message, which may be a pithy quote, a riddle, or a bon mot. Made in Coteau, near Roanne, these papillotes melt are a time-honored tradition of the Lyon and the surrounding regions.

The Rougié family story began in 1875 in Cahors, in southwestern France, when Léonce Rougié opened a small production workshop that soon became a favorite among gourmets. In 2005, Rougie set up a small production facility in Quebec in 2005. Twenty years later, the Foies Gras that still carry the name of this great family are now identified as a gem of the local gastronomic scene, and are cooked by some the greatest Chefs in North America.
