Meilleure spécialité de France 2014

In 2004, the Breton chocolatier Philip Le Petitcorps created this treat- an exquisite chocolate bonbon composed of a fine shell of dark chocolate filled with a fondant center of caramel au beurre salé-and in 2014 it was elected best specialty in France by the National Culinary Academy. The pompon winks an eye at the “batchi” or cap of the sailors in the National Marine. Legend has it that touching the red pompon will bring luck.
